

The South Lawn Medical Practice News August 2017

PATIENTS OF DR PHILIP ANNETTS PLEASE NOTE:

Dr Annetts is on well-earned Sabbatical Leave from Monday 24th July, and will return to the Practice on Friday 15th September.

Dr Simon Ogilve will be with us looking after his patients whilst he is away.

Best in Exeter July 2017

The whole Team are delighted to have been found to be the "best surgery in Exeter" in terms of patients rating their general experience as "good" following an NHS-run survey involving hundreds of thousands of patient responses for the SECOND year running!

Keeping Healthy

Why not take the healthy option and walk or cycle to your routine appointment at the Health Centre?

Your GP can recommend specific exercise classes such as ISCA Active or Waterbility. The Practice Nurses are happy to see patients who would like an appointment for lifestyle or dietary advice, and can offer health eating diet advice sheets when

Patients of Dr Harrison

Dr Andrew Harrison will be reducing the number of sessions he works at the Practice from 4 September 2017 as part of a phased retirement. He has no plans for final retirement at present.

He will continue to care for half his current patient list and the other half will become the responsibility of Dr Katherine Wood who will be increasing her commitment to become a full time partner. The list will be split alphabetically so those with a surname 'A to K' will continue to have Dr Harrison as their usual GP and those from 'L to Z' will have Dr Wood as their usual GP.

It is with regret that Dr Harrison will no longer be caring for many patients he has known and cared for over a long period of time, but the split by surname seems the fairest way to make the division.

It may be that the changes will result in some households with some members remaining on Dr Harrison's list and others with a different surname being allocated to Dr Wood. If this is an issue for you please contact reception to discuss.

In all other circumstances the split of the list will relate to surname and there will be no
